VICKSBURG, MISSISSIPPI RALLY

OCTOBER 30 THROUGH NOVEMBER 2, 2012

VINTAGE BIRDS ANNUAL MEETING

Our annual meeting rally will be held in Vicksburg, Mississippi. Slightly overlooked but on I-20 and full of charm, Vicksburg is on the eastern bluffs of the mighty Mississippi. Our scheduled activities suggest dinner at the delightful Walnut Hills Restaurant, a three hour narrated bus tour of Historic Vicksburg (and there's plenty of history here) and an hour and a half Mississippi river boat tour. These scheduled activities will be supplemented with informal potluck breakfast and dinners. A free day will allow a car tour of the national battlefield (the Union army advanced from the swamps of Louisiana to the west to engage the Confederate army in the redoubts on the Vicksburg bluffs) and perhaps see a live show at one of the two theaters in Vicksburg. We may also have time for a Dutch treat lunch or dinner at "The World", an oldies biker bar across the river in Delta Louisiana with its noisy ambiance but delicious burgers and rib eye sandwiches. Following the rally you may want to drive the beautiful Natchez Trace to Victorian Natchez as a continuation of the Mississippi venue. We will stay at the Magnolia RV Park slightly east of downtown near the Wal-Mart (hurray). Please contact Lisa Haddar, park owner, to make your reservations for $26 per night at 601-631-0388 and mention you are with Vintage Birds. All sites are pull-through and I have been assured all sites receive satellite and WiFi signals. The anticipated cost of the rally is $130 per coach and includes the cost of the scheduled activities but not the campground fees. I need one or two couples to be co-hosts to help plan the informal activities. Contact Bob Dilks at 580-564-3517 to confirm your attendance at the rally or offer assistance.

FMCA VINTAGE BIRD CHAPTER

2011 Annual Meeting/Nashville Rally

"You Ain't Goin Blieve This..."

By Jane Gesse

Janet Owen and Peggy McKeegan rallied the Vintage birds for a fun filled 5 days in Nashville for our 2011 Annual Business Meeting. After attending the 2nd Annual Friends and Family Rally in Chattanooga, 10 coaches headed for Nashville on October 30th. We were joined by another 8 coaches for our annual meeting. Coaches began rolling into the Nashville KOA on Sunday. Joe and Dannie Kennedy were in their bluebird staying in a nearby campground and noticed all the birds flying into the KOA and moved over to join us. Everyone welcomed Joe and Dannie into the flock. Brian and Barbara Symington from Ontario/Mexico flew in with the flock from Friends and Family. Will and Li Volk came in a little late after experiencing coach problems. Planned activities were scheduled to begin on Tuesday afternoon, so those of us arriving early began filling our time visiting area attractions and doing what we tend to do best - eating. Monday morning a group went to Andrew Jackson's beautiful home The Hermitage. The weather was perfect for a day strolling around the grounds and visiting the house. That evening Jim and Sherry Miller treated everyone with an impromptu fish fry and pot luck. Four other couples had previously made reservations at the well known Nashville steak house The Stock Yard where they came away with lighter wallets and an unforgettable evening. Trick or Treat! Bob Giffen was on hand to pass on valuable information he learned recently about radiators and rust. The guys all continued working on different issues with the various coaches. With all that knowledge floating around, issues evolved and were resolved.

The rally kicked off Tuesday evening around the fire pit area with everyone bringing Hors d'oeuvres for an informal "meet and greet".

Wednesday morning, Jim Miller was at it again, making pancakes for the group. With our fill of pancakes, fresh fruit, bacon, coffee and juice, we were ready for the annual business meeting to begin. After the meeting adjourned, we were free for the day. Everyone proceeded to enjoy the area attractions. We met back at camp Wednesday evening for pot luck back out at the fire pit. (Lots of good cooks in this group.) After dinner was 'Get to Know You' Bingo and prizes. Once dinner and bingo were over, several of the group headed to the KOA Theater for a night of music. They were entertained with music from The Fabulous '50s & 60s with The Kenny and the Krooners Oldies Show.

Thursday was a free day. Several cars went to Franklin for sightseeing, shopping, and more eating. It was a cold windy day just made for shopping. Women shopped while men found the coffee shops for a comfortable chair and warm coffee. Others went to The Opry Land Hotel to view the gardens, and still others went to The Hermitage, and Belle Meade Plantation. A few of the guys even found a car museum.

When we returned to camp, we had a nice catered dinner waiting for us. After dinner was another round of 'Get to Know You' Bingo and prizes. Thursday night was also a grand prize drawing for a Euro recliner and ottoman donated by Charlie McKeegan. Congratulations to Paul Ward for winning the recliner. Everyone was being friendly to Paul hoping for a few minutes in his new recliner.

Friday began with Peggy's famous homemade biscuits, gravy, eggs, fresh fruit, and coffee. Jim Miller once again jumped in and cooked enough eggs for us all. Between Peggy and Charlie McKeegan, Jim and Sherry Miller, and Janet Owen who worked as a team and made breakfast, everyone had fuel for heading out to see more of the area attractions. The day was again filled with trips to The Hermitage, The Country Music Hall of Fame, and other area attractions.

Friday evening was a trip to the Grand Ole Opry at the Ryman Center. How fun is that. Among the artists performing tonight were Jeannie Seely, Jim Ed Brown, Mike Snider, and Little Jimmy Dickens. At 91 years of age Little Jimmy Dickens still sings and keeps you in stitches with his jokes. Everyone had a great time, and as we left the Opry we went past Printers Alley. Man! How did we miss that! A definite must see next trip to Nashville. On the way back to the campground Tommy Vance Entertained everyone with his famous "You Ain't Goin' Believe This" story. It was an evening to be remembered.

Saturday morning was goodbyes all round. A couple of coaches were staying behind to see more of Nashville. Musical horns marked our departures with promises to meet again in the coming months. Our thanks to Janet Owen and Peggy McKeegan for a great time.

HISTORIC DENVER RALLY

BY SUE RAMSEY

We began with pre-rally tour of the Denver Mint for early attendees. With architecture from the Gothic Renaissance Era, this mint is on the National Register and has the capacity to produce more than forty million coins a day. Visiting the mint gave us an opportunity to see the heart of the city including the famous gold-domed state capital building. The official rally started on Thursday evening when we greeted old and new friends and enjoyed heavy Hours d'oeuvres ending with games and door prizes.

Friday morning we carpoled to Georgetown where we rode the train on the Georgetown loop Railroad and toured the Lebanon silver mine. That afternoon we travel forwarded in time as we visited the National Renewable Energy Laboratories in Golden. However, the day did not compare to the evening we spent at the home of Neat and Jon; the food was scrumptious and the surroundings beautiful. The evening was a chance to visit and catch up on each others travels.

Saturday we hopped aboard Banjo Billy's unique bus tour of downtown Denver. The bus seating included one saddle, one couch and a hodgepodge of arm chairs. The bus was open-aired and as we rode to banjo music the bus emitted sounds of whinnies, barking and braying. You should have seen the attention we got as we saw all the important sights of Denver. Saturday afternoon we toured the Coors Brewery on our own. That was a neat tour where we learned how important good water is to the making of beer. Oh, and did I say they gave away samples.

Sunday was a dinner theater event where had a delightful brunch followed by the musical "In Perfect Harmony". We wandered in and out of the quaint shops of Heritage Square. It was a wonderful afternoon spent with a great group of people.

Monday morning we said our goodbyes over coffee and donuts. Those who attended this great rally were Jim & Nancy Brookshire, Maurice & Rozanne DeShazer, Bob & Jo Dilks, Dennie & Karen James, Jimmie & Tammy James, Charles & Peggy McKeehan, Robert Phares, Mark & Kathy Ragsdale, Richard & Sue Ramsey, Jon & Neat Scott, Jim & Jean Thompson, and Paul & Ann Ward.
